

Sitamarhi 20 May 2020

—Simran Hisaria.

A well know businessman Prabhat Hisaria, aged 58 was shot dead in a broad daylight on 20 May 2020, in Sitamarhi, Koat Bazar, Bihar. Prabhat was returning home on a scooter with a bag of cash when he saw three men on another scooter following him. According to eye witness he tried his best to ride as fast as possible but found himself surrounded by the men on the other scooter. These men had guns and their faces were covered . When the goons tried to snatch the backpack, Prabhat resisted. The goons pushed and shot him. The video and images below are based on the Cctv footage that the police sourced from a nearby shop.

The police with the help of DGP Gupteshwar Pandey was able to arrest all the members involved in the incident and also found the cash. The Identities of the criminals have not been revealed.

This incident left us all in a great shock. It left us thinking about how unsafe the society is getting day by day.
